DETAILED ACTION

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the stainless steel outlet and body surfaces specified in claims 5, 9, 12, 16, and 20 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). (The drawings show cross-sectional hatching for a plastic outlet and body surfaces.) No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3753

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 5, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rainin et al. Member 46 of Rainin et al is read as an “inlet”.

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-2, 5, 7-8, 10-11, 13, 16, and 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Watts publication in view of the Conbraco publication. These claims are considered met by the Watts publication except for the inlet being formed from a different material than the outlet. The Conbraco publication shows an inlet member in a carbonated beverage backflow preventer made of plastic material. It would have been obvious in view of the Conbraco publication to substitute an inlet member made of plastic material for the inlet member of the Watts publication in order to reduce the cost of materials, since the Conbraco publication teaches that plastic body materials are suitable for a backflow preventer for carbonated beverages.

6. Claims 3-4, 6, 9, 12, 14-15, and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Claim 20 is allowed.
